The men in the infield attracted the most admiration, and everybody had words of praise for O'Brien, the clever shortstop. He gathered them in on all sides and passed the ball quickly, considering he is not yet in good condition. Babb showed he would be more than able to take care of the third corner, while Fox displayed his wonderful ground-covering ability around second. Polo Team Demoralized by Sickness of Star Goal Tender. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 4.-Muncie's polo team was demoralized to-night by the absence of the star goal tender, David Cusick, and fell easy prey to Lowell in the second game of the national championship series. Cusick was attacked with a hemorrhage of the lungs last night, caused by the rupture of a vessel in his right lung, and today the physician stated that pneumonia is threatened. When forced to remain in his room, knowing that there was no substitute, Cusick cried like a child and begged to be permitted to play. Jessup, the Richmond goal tender, is in St. Louis with the St. Paul baseball team, Anderson's goal tender has returned East and Mott Harris. Muncie's former goal tender, is playing in Racine with Anderson. Muncle was forced to place Bishop, a local amateur, in the cage, and Lowell easily won the game by the score of 10 to 2. For the final game on Saturday night a new man will be secured, but Muncie generally concedes the series to Lowell. There were 3,400 persons at to-night's game and hundreds were turned away. All reserved seats for Saturday night's game were sold in advance to-day.

MADE RUSSELL HUSTLE.

Ring by Joe Walcott.

CHICAGO, April 4.-Joe Walcott, the welter-weight champion, and Fred Russell, of Minnesota, went six rounds to a draw here to-night. Russell, who is a heavy weight, and a big one at that, was unable to do anything with Walcott, and it certainly appeared that the latter was entitled to the verdict, having forced the fighting throughout. When the men shaped up for action there was such a disparity in their sizes that the affair looked ridiculous, Walwaist line. The men had fought but a minute, however, when it was plainly evident that the little negro was perfectly able to cope with his big opponent and rather enjoyed holding up Russell's 225 pounds when they clinched Before the round ended Walcott dropped Russell with a right | fantry, sailed yesterday from Mayaguez | Greencastle, Portland, Elwood, Hammond, to the jaw. but the bell gave Russell much needed rest, and he was in fair shape at the commencement of the next round. He appeared timid during the next few rounds and kept well covered, but managed to land several hard swings on Walcott's head. Walcott paid little attention to Russell's efforts and kept slamming away for the latter's ribs with both hands. Walcott tried for a knock-out several times, but missed by a narrow margin. In the last round Walcott reached Russell's stomach with a number of hard swings and had the big fellow so weak that, although weighing nearly a hundred pounds less, he was able to push Russell all over the ring when they came In the preliminary Mike Schreck, of Reading, Pa., knocked out "Buck" Montgomery in four rounds.

May Fight at Charleston.

NEW YORK, April 4.-Charleston is now believed to have clear sailing for the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons bout. The American and Journal to-day publishes a dispatch, said to have been received from Los Angeles, and signed by J. J. McCarey, which reads: As Fitzsimmons has failed to answer our telegram of April 1, which was final, we withdraw all offers made by the Century Athletic Club for the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons This was followed by a dispatch, purport-

Y., five times in an hour at the Olympic Athletic Club to-night. Atherton was floored four times in a total of fifty-seven minutes, and stayed the remaining three minutes without exerting himself, and won the match. Atherton remained on the defensive most of the time, and won frequent applause by his clever work in breaking dangerous holds secured by the Englishman.

Fought to a Draw.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 4 .- Joe Handler, of Newark, N. J., and Kid McPartland, of Buffalo, fought six rounds to a draw in the wind-up of the Milwaukee Boxing Club's show to-night. ALL OTHER SHOOTERS AT KANSAS CITY HAVE MISSED BIRDS.

Thirty-Three Had Straight Kills of Twenty-Five Each, but Nineteen Fell Out in the Shoot-Off.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.-Thirtythree wing shots made a straight score of twenty-five birds to-day in the Grand American handicap and at the end of the tenth round of the shoot-off fourteen men remained who had not yet missed a bird. The shooting stopped at the end of the tenth round of the shoot-off on account of darkness. The contest will be resumed at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning and continued until only one man without a miss re-

The shoot-off commenced shortly after 4 o'clock and thousands of spectators gathered around No. 3 set of traps, where the wing shot supremacy was to be decided. Each of the men tied for first honors had a great following and every good shot met with applause. The first man to miss in the shoot-off was J. Kaintuck, of Harris, Ky. He drew a hard right quarterer on the first round of the shoot-off and shot under the bird with both barrels. "Eugenia," of St. Louis, was the only other man to miss out on this round. He had been shooting in rare form up to this time, but he hesitated too long on this bird, and, although hit, the bird did not fall. Ed Banks, of New York, Sim Glover, New York, W. W. Turner, of Marlin, Tex., and W. H. Herman, of Kansas City, each missed his bird on the next round. Glover killed his bird, but it fell out of bounds. At the end of the third round of the shoot-off three more men had dropped out of the race. They were W. R. Crosby, of O'Fallon, Ill., C. B. Adams, Rockwell City, Ia., and John Avery, Atlanta, Ga. The annual gymnastic carnival of the Socialer Turnverein was held at the German House last evening, the large auditorium being crowded with spectators. The exhibitions of skill and muscle and the graceful maneuvers of the classes in their special drills won the admiration of the spectators. There were 400 participants in the programme, the exhibition opening with grand march and tableau by all participants, the men, youths, boys, women and girls taking part in the intricate marches. Hugo Fischer, director of the Turnverein, city over Sunday. arranged beautiful drills for the various classes, and the effects were spectacular The torch drill given by the first division of the girls' class was one of the most interesting features of the programme. Each of the girls carried colored torches, and with the house darkened the effect was brilliant. The second division of the girls' class gave a hoop drill that was very pleasing.
